

Recording the Course Planning Decisions on the Course Planning Sheet

Use the course planning sheet below to align content, activities, and assessments with desired outcomes as you envision your course. Be sure that each choice for content, learning experiences and assessment activities points back to at least one objective AND be sure that every objective points to at least one choice for content, and learning experiences, and assessment activities

Outcomes and Objectives: List your desired outcomes for your students and plan some objectives for each.	Assessment Activities: List the kinds of activities that will allow students to demonstrate their learning and its relevance.
	Learning Experiences: List potential kinds of learning experiences to encourage student interaction with the content and each other to promote and deepen learning.
	Content: List potential content resources (texts, videos, podcasts, images, etc.) related to your desired outcomes.

For ideas to consider, visit Bloom's Digital Taxonomy.