Table of Contents

About the Author viii
Preface ix
Introduction xii

Part I • What Chairs Need to Know to Understand Their Departments and Their New Roles
1 Departments and Colleges as Open and Closed Systems 3
2 Understanding the Institution and Its Processes 7
3 When a Faculty Member Becomes a Department Chair 11

Part II • What Chairs Need to Know to Do Their Jobs
4 What Chairs Need to Know Their First Day on the Job 25
5 Department Climate 29
6 Politics 35
7 Budget 43
8 Department Meetings 55
9 Time Management 63
10 Personnel Evaluation and Performance Counseling 69
11 Challenging Personnel 75
12 Legal Considerations 83
13 Professional Development 89
14 Workload Considerations 95
15 How to Support Teaching and Learning 101
16 Chair-Dean Relations 105

Part III • Leading, Managing, and Changing the Academic Department
17 The Department Chair as Manager and Leader 113
18 Changing the Academic Department 117
19 The Winds of Change and Department Operations: A Case Study 123

Additional Resources 127
Bibliography 129
Index 131