Table of Contents

About the Authors
Introduction

Part I • Establishing a Foundation for Effective Leadership Communication

1. Using the Institutional Mission to Empower Performance
2. Setting Precedents Carefully
3. Sharing Decision-Making Criteria to Inform Requests
4. Establishing Your Leadership Credibility
5. Building Relationships

Part II • Developing a Fair and Effective Leadership Communication Style

6. Managing Interpersonal Conflict
7. Managing the Search Process
8. Managing Performance Counseling
9. Managing Faculty Morale, Changing Duties, and Shrinking Resources
10. Managing Up and Out

Part III • Using Leadership Communication to Manage Especially Difficult People

11. Managing Personal Agendas
12. Containing the Pot Stirrer/Troublemaker
13. Working With the Prima Donna/Drama Queen
14. Managing the Confrontation Junkie
15. Engaging the Passive and Indifferent Soul

Annotated Bibliography
Index